TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 15, 1858.

THE VALUE OF A BRIDLE. A correspondent of the Boston Post gives a graphic description of the 'Great Derby' race in England, introducing a curious incident as follows: "guessed" Toxopholite would win, and like many a wiser man, guessed just exactly wrong. At a quarter to three the band struck up, and out rode the jockeys ready for the start; all accoutred in silk jackets and close fitting caps of divers gay colors; blue, yellow, red, purple, white and black predominating. They all were shot belts when necessary, making the weight of each man exactly 8 stone 7 pounds, or 119 pounds. Of course they are weighed as soon as they come in, or a dishonest jockey might spill his shot, and with the advantage of lighter weight put in more powder, and bag the game in an illicit manner. A singular inciday. Wells, the jockey that rode Beadsman, on weighing at the close, was found, by some at Wilmington, Delaware, on SATURDAY. chance, one pound short weight, and honest June 26th, 1858. or dishonest, accident or design, everything must be according to certain fixed rules or the race is lost. Now, as a horse carries a bridle, which it is not usual to weigh though the saddle is weighed with the rider, he can claim the bridle if he chooses, and in Boadsman's case it was thrown in, and made up the odd pound. The excitement on account of the short weight was terrible, and had the Tickets $15-Halves $7 50-Quarters $3.75. bridle not been thought of, or had been insufficient. Sir Joseph Hawley's winner would have been nowhere, and Lord Derby with Toxopholite would have won the race. Here three hundred thousand dollars rested on the weight of a horse's bridle, an article worth under the circumstances a good many times learning-and leather! (This little incikeep our tackle and tools in good order.)

ANECDOTE.

When Col. L. was a candidate for Congress in one of the Northwestern States, he was opposed by a gentleman who had distinguished himself in the war of 1812. Disopponent's military reputation was operating | cost of Tickets-all such are swindles. strongly to his own prejudice, he concluded to let the people know that he was not unknown to fame as a soldier himself, and accordingly, in his next speech, he expatiated on his achievements in the tented field as fol-

"My competitor has told you of the services he rendered the country in the last war. Let me tell you that I, too, acted an humble part in that memorable contest. When the tocsin of war summoned the chivalry of the West, to rally to the defence of the national honor, I, fellow-citizens, animated by that patriotic spirit that glows in every American bosom, hired a substitute for that war, and the bones of that man lie bleaching on the banks of the Raisin!"-Harper's Monthly.

COMPLIMENTARY—VERY!

Senators sometimes indulge in very courteous and dignified language towards each other, as the following, which occured in the United States Senate recently, will show.— Mr. King, of New York, commenced a reply to Mr. Toombs, of Georgia, in which he nish understanding to the Senator from Georgia, who has chosen to misunderstand the facts of this case, and of course thus to misstate them. I will read the law." To which Mr. Toombs replied-

"I will certainly relieve the Senator from New York from any obligation to furnishme any brains in this case, because I have seen nothing in that Senator's course which indicated that he could spare any." This vein of wit might aptly be termed, "diamond cut diamond."

DR. TYNG ON TEMPERANCE, &c. The Rev. Dr. Tyng addressed a temperance meeting of the New York police on Wednesday evening, during which he said: -

Despite what the newspapers said he considered New York a well governed city, and the Police an active and efficient body of men. He read of rowdies being shot, but he believed those who were shot deserved to be shot. Killing them was like opening boils and getting rid of the bad substance. He drew a contrast between the capacity and worth of a sober and a drunken policeman, and by means of this strong contrast urged in conclusion the duty of temperance, showing that it carried its own rich reward with

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADEL-PHIA.—A benevolent Institution, estabed by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.—To all persons afflicted with Sexual Diseases, such as SPERMATORRHEA, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, IMPOTENCE, &c.

The Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon as a charitable act, worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter with a description of their condition, (age occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty, to furnish Medicines free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment. The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have re-solved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much despised cause. Just published by the Association, a Report on Spermatorrhoa, or Seminal Weakness, by the Consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a sealed letter envelope,) free of charge, on receipt of two stamps for postage. Address, for Report or treatment, Dr. GEO. R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 south Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Directors. EZRA D. HEARTWELL, President.

SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY, ALEXANDRIA, VA-CAPITAL OVER $250,0000,

AND CONSTANTLY IN CREASING.
The charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others than any other company chartered in the State by insuring with or without a premium note .-If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves oneeighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay: or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly nies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of THE CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE.

This company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by tire, on the 16th of sand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over thirty thousand dollars have been paid for losses .-Having trebled our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe that by prudence, caution and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety, not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company
